

Greater Atlanta Chapter
presents
“CHILD’S PLAY”

Gary L. Arnold, Clinician
Music Curriculum Specialist/Pearson Silver Burdett*

March 14, 2015
*Kennesaw State University
Wilson Building Room 114
10:00-12:30

Children love to play. Capturing that involvement and connections makes for an engaging experience for young students. We will listen, sing, dance, and play our way to discovering new and exciting ways to engage our students. Be ready to rediscover your inner child.

For planning purposes RSVP is requested to Louise Betsch lbetsch@att.net, or 404-455-3606 by Wednesday, March 11.

Fees for the workshop are as follows: $10 for Chapter Members, $15 for Non-Members, $3 for students

Kennesaw State University is located at 1000 Chastain Road, Kennesaw, GA 30144, approximately 20 minutes north of Atlanta.*

Campus map: http://www.kennesaw.edu/maps/docs/kennesaw_2d_map.pdf

*Gary L. Arnold has served as the Music/Fine Arts Curriculum Specialist for PEARSON for the past 27 years. He has been a presenter at state, national, and international conferences. He received the “Consultant of the Year” award with Scott Foresman in 2003. He has also served as a Cross Curricular Consultant with PEARSON. Prior to serving as a consultant with PEARSON, Mr. Arnold taught K-8 music for 14 years in the Knox County system in Knoxville, Tennessee, where he was awarded the Master Teacher level in the Career Ladder program for educators. Mr. Arnold received his Bachelor of Music Education from Carson-Newman College and his Master of Science in Music Education from the University of Tennessee. He also has Level I and II Orff certification as well as Level I Kodaly certification. Mr. Arnold served as Director of Music at churches in the Knoxville area where he conducted choral and instrumental ensembles. He also traveled as a singer and dancer with the “Up with People” show during the Bicentennial year.